DECLARATION OF ROBERT RUBIN IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND
EXPENSES

Date: August 28, 2019
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Dept.: SSC-9

[Assigned for all purposes to the Honorable Yvette
Palazuelos]

1 I, Robert Rubin, declare that:

2 1. I am counsel for Plaintiffs in the above-entitled case. I am duly admitted to 3 practice before this Honorable Court and all Courts in the State of California. I have 4 personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this Declaration and, if called as a witness, could 5 and would competently testify to the matters set forth herein.

6 BACKGROUND

7 2. I have been a civil rights attorney for the past 40 years. For well over half that 8 time, I have specialized in the area of voting rights.

9 3. I graduated with honors from Northwestern University in 1973 and completed
10 my J. D. at the University of San Diego in 1978.

11 4. My legal career began in Mississippi in 1979 when I assumed the position of 12 Staff Attorney at the ACLU. Over the course of my two-year stint in Mississippi, I 13 conducted two federal court trials and two preliminary injunction hearings. I settled two 14 prison condition cases. I prevailed on several TRO actions involving free speech matters. I
15 also filed and prevailed on a precedent-setting case in which the US Supreme Court
16 ultimately ruled in our favor, finding that equal protection principles involving gender 17 discrimination apply with equal force to males seeking admission to women-only nursing 18 colleges. Mississippi University for Women v. Hogan. Despite practicing in front of federal 19 judges like Harold Cox, named Man of the Year by the Ku Klux Klan in 1977, I prevailed in 20 10 of the 11 cases I filed while in Mississippi.

21 5. In 1981, I was hired as the founding staff attorney for the Immigrant and 22 Refugee Rights Project at the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights in San Francisco, a non-23 profit organization established in 1963 at the behest of President Kennedy. During this 24 period, I filed more than 60 actions in state and federal courts. While continuing to head that 25 project, I founded the Committee's Voting Rights Project, later was appointed to the position
26 of Legal Director and maintained that position until I left the Lawyers' Committee for Civil 27 Rights in 2013.

28

1 6. Among my more significant victories while at the Lawyers' Committee for 2 Civil Rights was a voting rights case which actually reached the US Supreme Court twice
3 with plaintiffs prevailing on both occasions - Lopez v. Monterey County. Among other high-
4 profile cases I handled was a wrongful detention suit on behalf of an Egyptian citizen who 5 was among the first persons arrested in the wake of the 9/11 attacks. This case attracted 6 widespread media coverage including a segment on CBS' "60 Minutes." Finally, as 7 described below, I regularly employ my advocacy skills at both the state legislative and 8 Congressional levels to enhance the impact of my litigation strategies. My legislative 9 advocacy around issues arising both before and after the enactment of the CVRA is a prime 10 example of the symbiotic effect of utilizing a variety of strategies. I am widely recognized 11 as one of the top experts on the CVRA in the state.

12 7. Since 2013 I have been the principal of the Law Office of Robert Rubin, 13 exclusively pursuing voting rights matters.

14 8. I have testified on numerous occasions before the California legislature and the 15 U.S. Congress. At the request of the legislative sponsor, I drafted legislation and testified
16 before the Assembly Elections Committee in 1999 in support of legislation that later evolved
17 into the California Voting Rights Act. I testified in December 2013 before a joint elections 18 committee of the California Senate and Assembly regarding possible changes to the CVRA.
19 I consult on an ongoing basis with the Senate elections committee.

20 9. I have lectured extensively (including Adjunct Positions at Stanford Law 21 School and University of California School of Law, Boalt Hall). My latest venture into the 22 world of academia was in 2014 when I taught a voting rights seminar during the spring
23 semester at both Hastings College of the Law and UC Davis School of Law.

24 10. I have had more than 30 articles published on various aspects of civil rights
25 law. Many of these articles specifically address issues involving voting rights.
26 Additionally, my litigation and advocacy efforts have attracted media coverage from outlets
27
28

1 such as The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, CNN, NBC, CBS, ABC, NPR and "60
2 Minutes."

3 11. Some of my more significant litigation successes include Shamloo v.
4 Mississippi State Board Of Trustees, 620 F.2d 516 (5th Cir. 1980) (First Amendment rights
5 of free speech); Mississippi University for Women v. Hogan, 102 S. Ct. 3331 (1982) (equal
6 protection and gender discrimination); Haitian Centers Counsel v. Sale, 823 F. Supp. 1028 7 (EDNY 1993) (due process for Haitian refugees unlawfully detained at the military base in 8 Guantanamo Bay, Cuba) and Pedro A. v. Dawson, No. 965089 San Francisco Superior 9 Court (1994) (PROP. 187 -- equal protection for undocumented immigrant children 10 threatened with expulsion from public schools statewide).

11 12. I have appeared twice in the US Supreme Court on voting rights matters and 12 was counsel of record in the Supreme Court on another voting rights case. Some of my 13 more significant voting rights litigation successes include securing the first injunction in the 14 nation ordering a state to comply with the National Voter Registration Act ("motor voter 15 law"). Voting Rights Coalition v. Wilson, 60 F.3d 1411 (9th Cir. 1995), cert. denied 116
16 S.Ct. 815 (1996).

17 13. In another case decided favorably on two separate appeals to the U.S. Supreme 18 Court, I was co-lead counsel for Latino voters in Monterey County who successfully 19 opposed the imposition of at-large elections that diluted their voting power. Lopez v.
20 Monterey County, 514 U.S. 549 (1995); 525 U.S. 266 (1999). Both Supreme Court
21 decisions involved statutory construction of the federal Voting Rights Act with the second 22 appeal also involving the constitutionality of section 5 of the Act.

23 14. In another section 5 matter, I was lead counsel in the suit that successfully
24 challenged the elimination of dozens of polling sites for the California gubernatorial recall 25 election. Oliveriez v. California (N.D. Cal. 2003).

26 15. In 2004, I was requested by the national Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights
27 to lead a team of lawyers in Ohio prepared to challenge expected restrictions on voting
28

1 practices in the upcoming presidential election. In a challenge to Ohio's restrictions on 2 provisional voting, which we were able to identify only the day before the election, a
3 temporary restraining order was issued on Election Day removing all such restrictions.
4 White v. Blackwell (N. Ohio 2004).

5 16. George Brown, formerly a partner at Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP and lead
6 counsel for Defendant in this case up until his retirement, praised my work, skill and 7 dedication in a 2010 article in Super Lawyers:

8 “He’s very passionate, very dedicated to the cause,” says George H. Brown
9 of Gibson Dunn, who {was} a board member for the Lawyers’ Committee, 10 and co-counsel with Rubin on several voting rights cases. “He’s very 11 persuasive in court because of the passion he brings as well as his ability to 12 draw on decades of work.”

14 Liberties His Life’s Work” available at https://www.superlawyers.com/california-

16

17 CVRA LITIGATION

18 16. Since the California Voting Rights Act (CVRA) was enacted in 2001, 19 approximately 30 lawsuits have been filed challenging at-large election systems. I have been 20 counsel or a consultant on more than two-thirds of these cases, with plaintiffs prevailing on 21 every one. Among the more significant, I was co-lead counsel in Sanchez v. City of Modesto
22 145 Cal. App. 4th 660 (2006), the first CVRA case filed and the first case to be reported. In 23 a facial attack on the constitutionality of the CVRA, the city sought review in the California
24 Supreme Court as well as the US Supreme Court; both courts refused to disturb the appellate 25 court's ruling upholding the constitutionality of the CVRA. Ultimately, the settlement of this 26 case included a $3,000,000 attorneys' fee award even though the case never reached trial.
27 The Sanchez case removed any uncertainty as to the constitutionality of the CVRA; thus, the 28 decision is the basis upon which all subsequent CVRA actions rest.

1 17. I was lead counsel in Gomez v. Hanford Joint Unified School District, the first
2 CVRA case to be favorably resolved. Other CVRA actions that I have handled include: Rey
3 v. Madera Unified School District, in which for the first time under the CVRA, a court
4 enjoined certification of an election; and Satorre v. San Mateo County, where we forced San 5 Mateo to convert to a district system resulting in the last remaining County in the state to 6 abandon the at-large system.

7 18. Given my expertise on CVRA matters, I was invited to serve as co-counsel in 8 Jauregui v. City of Palmdale, the first case to go to trial under the CVRA. Among other
9 things, Jauregui established that Palmdale's status as a "charter city" did not immunize it
10 from the provisions of the CVRA.

11 19. Having assumed a statewide leadership role on CVRA-related matters, I 12 convened a roundtable in 2015 to discuss some of the challenges in bringing CVRA cases.
13 Representatives from Latino and Asian advocacy organizations, legal services groups, law
14 firms and law professors attended. I led the group (approximately 20-25 people) through a 15 series of issues that allowed for valuable sharing of various legal strategies.

16 20. Since we defeated the constitutional challenge to the CVRA in Sanchez, I have 17 prevailed on approximately 15-20 CVRA matters. By way of non-exhaustive examples,
18 these actions involved the city councils of Anaheim, Bellflower, Compton, Fullerton,
19 Palmdale, Tulare, Ventura and Visalia. I have also prevailed against the San Mateo County 20 Board of Supervisors which was the last remaining county in the state to have maintained an 21 at-large system. Additionally, I resolved another 10-12 cases against school boards and 22 special districts through demand letters and negotiations. Of particular note, I was able to 23 persuade the Coachella Valley Water District to convert its electoral system from at-large to 24 districts, later convincing authorities to increase from 1 to 2 the number of majority Latino 25 districts.

26 21. In every CVRA case that I've filed, either a favorable decision has issued or a 27 favorable settlement has been reached, including resolution of the attorneys' fee claim.
28

1 22. In the City of Fullerton case, for example, a settlement was reached in 2015,
2 providing for the conversion of the city's at-large system to a district system. The settlement
3 also provided for attorneys' fees with my share being calculated at the rate of $900 per hour.

4 23. In the City of Ventura case, the matter was settled in January 2018 with the 5 City's agreement to convert from an at-large to a district system and to pay plaintiffs'
6 attorneys' fees calculated with my rate set at $965. In this same matter, Mr. Fahey 's fees
7 were calculated with his rate set at $615.

8
9 BILLING RATE

10 24. My current billing rate is $975. Earlier this year, the trial court in the Santa 11 Clara CVRA case – Yumori-Kaku v. City of Santa Clara – awarded me fees at the rate of 12 $975 per hour. Having spent 30 years at the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights, regularly 13 co-counselling and jointly seeking fee awards with private attorneys, I am well aware of 14 prevailing market rates. My rate is consistent with, if not lower than, prevailing market rates 15 for attorneys with comparable experience.

16 25. I directly supervised Mark Fahey on all of his work related to this case. Prior 17 to associating with my office, Mr. Fahey, a 2013 graduate of USC Gould School of Law,
18 was an associate at Kirkland & Ellis (2013-2017) working on complex intellectual property
19 litigation. His billing rate at Kirkland & Ellis and in employment at Wilson Sonsini 20 subsequent to working with me, was consonant with the industry standard for his associate 21 "class" - $615.

22 BILLING RECORDS

23 26. I kept contemporaneous time records to a tenth of an hour for my time 24 expended on this matter, and I ensured that Mark Fahey did the same. Attached hereto as 25 Exhibit 1 are true and correct copies of my contemporaneous time records and those of Mr.
26 Fahey.

27 27. In compiling the time records for myself and Mr. Fahey, I have exercised 28 billing judgment and not charged for any short meetings or telephone conversations that

1 required less than 10 minutes of my attention. I estimate that these write-offs amount to 2 approximately 20-25 hours of uncompensated time on this case.

3 28. In total, after exercising billing judgment, Mr. Fahey worked 34.2 hours on 4 this case and I worked 561.30 hours on this case through 2/13/19, as reflected in Exhibit 1.

5 EXPENSES

6 29. I also necessarily incurred significant expenses in pursuit of this case.
7 Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are my litigation expense totals and Exhibit 3 showing related 8 receipts. These records are a true and accurate reflection of costs I incurred related to this 9 litigation. The total amount of those expenses is $12,295.85.
10

11 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 12 foregoing is true and correct.

13 Executed this 3rd day of June 2019, at San Francisco, California.
